

CARRINE TABOR

Singer, Songwriter, Recording Artist

Carrine Tabor, A Chicago Native Singer, songwriter versed in a variety of genres, such as blues, rhythm & blues, jazz, rock and gospel.

Carrine's influences are Aretha Franklin, Gladys Knight, Chaka Khan, Johnny Taylor, ZZ Hill, guitarist Jerry Knight and Denise LaSalle, just to name a few. Carrine has performed either as an opening act, lead or background singer with the TCB band and ZZ Hill.

Carrine is currently working with her new band, "The Carrine Tabor Band." Expect to hear from CTB in the near future, as they are perfecting their sound together and will emerge to rise through the ranks as one of Chicago's top working bands. Carrine took a break from music to raise her family.

Now she's back with her new single, "LIVING MY BEST LIFE." Carrine spends much of her time writing and recording her music in the studio.

She feels it is time for her to re-embrace her first love (music) and to share her wonderful sounds of love with the world.
